

Acknowledgment

We would like to express our gratitude to the Government of Flanders, Department International Flanders and the Ministry of Science Education and Sport of the Republic of Croatia, for recognising the importance of the CADIAL project aims and for their financial support. We are grateful to Freddy Evens, Etienne Schollaert and Philip Meersman from the Department International Flanders in Brussels and Antonio Garcia from the Belgium Embassy in Zagreb for their support and encouragements. We are also grateful to Radovan Fuchs and Silvana Siebert from the Ministry of Science Education and Sport, Republic of Croatia.

Also, we wish to thank institutions, the Katholieke Universiteit Leuven, Belgium and the University of Zagreb, Croatia, for supporting the CADIAL activities. Also we would like to thank teams from both universities and from HIDRA for their enthusiastic and hard work that contributed to reach all CADIAL goals and to establish an excellent scientific and professional cooperation between Leuven and Zagreb. We thank also Natalie Van Geel from the Katholieke Universiteit Leuven, Olga Županić and Vedran Mornar, the dean of the Faculty of Electrical Engineering and Computing, University of Zagreb, for the administrative support and help.

We would like to express our gratitude to all graduate, undergraduate and doctoral students from Leuven and Zagreb that have contributed to the CADIAL project. We thank Erik Boiy, Juan Carlos Gomez, Raquel Mochales Palau, Jan Šnajder, Jure Mijić, Artur Šilić, Frane Šarić, Saša Petrović, Lovro Žmak, Davor Delač, Zoran Krleža, and Željko Agić.

We thank people from HIDRA who worked on manual annotation of Croatian legislative documents which was a necessary step in applying machine learning procedures. We thank Maja Cvitaš, Marija Brčić, Danica Horvat, Vanja Goldberger, Ivana Hajsek, Tamara Horvat, Sanja Jamičić, Marija Market, Diana Miletić, Jasmina Plavac, Andreja Rozmarić-Marković, Kristina Silaj, and Marta Softa.

We also thank Ralf Steinberger from the European Commission – Joint Research Centre, Ispra, Italy, for his support and encouragement in developing the Computer Aided Document Indexing System.

We thank all publishing houses, journals and conferences that have given us permission to reprint the papers in this book.
